translationStudio for the Desktop

Publishing a Project

What Is This Presentation About?

In this presentation you learn to:

- Describe the two types of publishing

- List prerequisites for source text publishing

- Explain the steps for source text publishing

The Android robot is reproduced or modified from work created and shared by Google and used according to terms described in the Creative Commons 3.0 Attribution License.

What Is Publishing?

- Publishing is a way to make your work available to others.
- Two types:
  - Self-publishing
  - Source text publishing (only for Gateway Languages)

What Is Publishing?

- Publishing is a way to make your work available to others.
- Two types:
  - Self-publishing
  - Source text publishing (only for Gateway Languages)

How Do I Self-Publish?

- Upload your project to Door43 as often as you want to create a backup of your work (see Upload to Door43).

- Uploaded project is available online to anyone at the URL https://door43.org/u/username/project_code.*

  https://door43.org/u/pamelini/fr_jas_text_ulb

- See Uploading, Exporting, and Importing a Project

Viewing Self-Published Projects

From Door43, anyone can:

- See the web version of your project with default formatting

- Download documents of your project (like a PDF)

- Get the link to the USFM file for your project

- Interact with others about your project

What Is Publishing?

- Publishing is a way to make your work available to others.
- Two types:
  - Self-publishing
  - Source text publishing (only for Gateway Languages)

How Do I Publish Source Text?

To publish the source text for a Gateway Language you must:

1. Meet the prerequisites

2. Submit Source Text Request Form

Prerequisites for Publishing Source Text

The source text must meet all of the following:

- Whole resource: Entire book or all of Open Bible Stories

- Appropriate checking level: Level 3 for Bible translations

- Uploaded to Door43: Merge content if done on multiple devices

- All contributors listed by either name or pseudonym

- Agreements: Document agreements by all contributors to License, Statement of Faith, and Translation Guidelines;
    May be done by having them:
        Create Door43 accounts OR physically sign documents and digitize them (scan or photo)

Submitting Source Text Request Form

To request that source text be published:

1. Perform project review to ensure that:

   - Translation is complete

   - All contributors are listed (include their Door43 usernames OR attach signed license agreements for them.)

2. Upload the completed project to Door43.

3. Fill out the source text request form at http://ufw.io/pub/.

   - You will be contacted about any issues.

   - You will be notified when publishing is complete for your review.

What Did You Learn?

In this presentation you learned to:

- Describe the two types of publishing

- List prerequisites for source text publishing

- Explain the steps for source text publishing

The Android robot is reproduced or modified from work created and shared by Google and used according to terms described in the Creative Commons 3.0 Attribution License.